

December 3, 2014

Season's Greetings!

I have one word that fills my spirit during this Christmas season. "Blessed". When I think of this time of year, I am reminded of the food on my table, the clothes on my back, the family and friends who make me smile and feel a great sense of joy, but this is not why I feel "Blessed". We often times get caught up in the blessings that God has given to each of us. Food, family, shelter, and clothes are all blessings we thank God for, but these are subsequent to the fact that the real feeling of being blessed comes from within. Knowing that Jesus came in this sinful world for me....I am blessed. Knowing that God sent his son to be born in a lowly manger....I am blessed. Knowing that he cared for me and the welfare of my soul...I am blessed! To put it simply, I am feeling blessed because Jesus loves me!

To all of Holy Family Parents, Students and Staff be blessed!